

Wooden Pallets Move Maine

Maine is a crucial contributor to the overall economic impact of the U.S. wood packaging industry.

TOTAL ECONOMIC OUTPUT

The production and distribution of wooden pallets contributed

$79.1M

in annual economic output for the state of Maine in 2016.

EMPLOYMENT AND INCOME

The U.S. wood packaging industry contributed 532

jobs to the Maine workforce in 2016.

VALUE ADDED

Maine added a total of

$31.7M

in value to end consumers in 2016.

The National Wood Pallet & Container Association

WHO WE ARE

The largest organization of wood packaging professionals in the world, with more than 670 company members in 28 countries who manufacture, repair and distribute pallets and wood packaging in unit-load solutions, or who supply products and services to the industry.

OUR MISSION

To provide an environment for our members to succeed while promoting the wood pallet and wood packaging industry.

CORE VALUES

- Wood as a sustainable and highly-valued resource
 - Exemplary service to members
 - High ethical standards and integrity
 - Building collaboration and community

MORE INFORMATION

Visit www.palletcentral.com

*An Economic Analysis of the U.S. Wooden Pallet and Container Industry, A Report Prepared for the National Wooden Pallet and Container Association by Mi Research in Partnership with Inforum, September 7, 2018.