

Wooden Pallets Move North Dakota

North Dakota is a crucial contributor to the overall economic impact of the U.S. wood packaging industry.

TOTAL ECONOMIC OUTPUT

The production and distribution of wooden pallets contributed in annual economic output for the state of North Dakota in 2016.

$24.3M

EMPLOYMENT AND INCOME

The U.S. wood packaging industry contributed 148

jobs to the North Dakota workforce in 2016.

VALUE ADDED

North Dakota added a total of

$10.7M

in value to end consumers in 2016.

The National Wood Pallet & Container Association

WHO WE ARE

The largest organization of wood packaging professionals in the world, with more than 670 company members in 28 countries who manufacture, repair and distribute pallets and wood packaging in unit-load solutions, or who supply products and services to the industry.

OUR MISSION

To provide an environment for our members to succeed while promoting the wood pallet and wood packaging industry.

CORE VALUES

- Wood as a sustainable and highly-valued resource
 - Exemplary service to members
 - High ethical standards and integrity
 - Building collaboration and community

MORE INFORMATION

Visit www.palletcentral.com

*An Economic Analysis of Employment, Gross Regional Product, Labor Income, Output and Taxes, A Report Prepared for the Hardware Federation by Informa Analytics, February 2019.